

Swift River

Bleached Hardwood Kraft

Swift River Hardwood is a bleached kraft pulp manufactured in Rumford, Maine from a blend of northern hardwood species. It is valued as a top-rated hardwood Kraft pulp that may be used in a wide range of applications including high value printing papers, specialty paper, technical papers, and tissue products. Swift River Hardwood is bleached using an ECF sequence, is produced with fiber sourced from well-managed forests, is available with FSC, SFI or PEFC Chain of Custody Certification. The bales are produced unwrapped.
