

Swift River

Bleached Hardwood Kraft

Swift River Hardwood kraft pulp manufactured in Rumford, Maine from a blend of northern hardwood. It is valued as a top-rated hardwood kraft pulp that may be used in a wide range of applications including high value printing papers, specialty paper, technical papers, and tissue products. Swift River is bleached using an ECF sequence, is produced with fiber sourced from well-managed forests and is available with FSC®, SFI®, or PEFC™ Chain of Custody Certification. The bales are produced unwrapped.
